Some reminders for receiving your 30 hour FCL Leader Certificate

Per the back of the FCL certificate you will receive the 30 hour FCL leader badge and certificate once you have accumulated 30 hours of FCL training.

18 hours of these 30 hours need to be as follows:

3 hours of Leadership – which is learning how to assume leadership in personal and community settings

3 hours of Group Process – where you learn and practice the skills necessary to lead a cohesive group that accomplishes tasks

3 hours of Issue Analysis and Resolution – you have gained an ability to identify and analyze issues which affect the family and learn to apply techniques to resolve the issue

3 hours in Public Policy – this is where you learn to become active and effective citizens and apply this knowledge to teach others

3 hours of Volunteering and Mentoring – in this area you learn to mentor, manage, motivate and train volunteers and encourage staff and volunteers to work together as peers

3 hours in Teaching Techniques – these hours will help you experience and apply effective adult and youth education methods in teaching the FCL concept.

The balance of 12 hours can be in any of the categories listed above but have to be taken from instructors using the FCL teaching technique –team teaching.

When you are ready to send in your certificates you need to attach a sheet listing the topics and hours of training received and how you will use it in your personal life and the community that you live in. These certificates and summary need to be mailed to: NAFCE, PO Box 642, Florence, Ky 41022-0642.
